The Queen's Message

What is your definition for membership of Nydia Temple No. 4, Daughters of the Nile? To me it's a way to build friendships with other women who wish to help support our philanthropy through donations and volunteer at Shriners Children's to make an impact on a child's life. In addition, for me it's a great social outlet. I have really enjoyed traveling with other members to events such as NW Daze, attending Supreme Session, going to another temple's Installation or SQ official visits. I have enjoyed these last four years attending Nydia's many Nile Clubs' meetings throughout the upper half of Oregon.

I have some concerns. Each year Nydia Temple's number of members is slowly decreasing. It's been since 2019 that Nydia Temple reported a positive growth in membership.

There are two parts to membership we all need to work together on.

Retaining our existing membership

Bringing in new members

We started out the year well by initiating five new members in May, and most recently at the Supreme Queen official visit we initiated another new member.

We have 26 open proposals; from January 2022 through October 2023, which have been balloted on. Using Constant Contact, I will send this list to our members. If you are the First or Second Signer, please call these women and encourage them to join.

Talk to your neighbors, to your associates, friends, and family about becoming a member. If you know of someone who you think would make a good member, submit a proposal. You do not need to talk with this person first. Submit your proposal to Pr. Recorder, Jennifer Moyer, PQ. Give her a call if you need assistance; she is willing to help you complete the proposal.

Your officers and I are willing to hold as many Ceremonials as needed or Obligation-only events to help bring in new members who have already submitted their petitions.

Retaining existing members is just as important and even more important. I recently read the following: "Retention is key! It's so important to retain the members we have while working to increase membership. Happy, involved, and productive members are going to be there for the long haul."

What does membership of Nydia Temple mean to you? Is being a member of Nydia Temple marking off all the boxes as to why you belong? Please communicate your feelings to your elected officers.

This year your Membership Committee has held a membership event once a quarter. Those members who attended had a fun time. However, attendance was low. The Queen, with the assistance of other members, offers both a Spring and Holiday luncheon. We know that everyone has useful ideas and plans, please share them.

Please collaborate with us and help Nydia Temple retain its existing membership. Together we will continue to keep Nydia Temple strong as we support our philanthropic efforts in supporting Shriners Children's. Together we can make an impact, not only on a child's life, but also improve our own lives due our own positive impact on a child's life.

Come with me and together we will Spread our wings and Soar!

Queen Donna L Gray

What Upcoming Holidays Mean to Me

Thanksgiving is coming up fast and then Christmas. For the Gray family the celebration is always centered around a meal. Now the grandchildren are adults or close to being adults, we have had some interesting conversations. After our meals the family will play a group game that always leaves us all laughing. Family meals to me are very precious events and great memories.

Wishing everyone a joyous Holiday Season with friends and family.

Queen Donna

Holiday Thoughts from Pr. Royal

Well Summer is over and we are in the middle of the holidays. Although if you are watching TV you know that on Hallmark Channel Christmas movies are all year long. We enjoy watching Christmas movies, we start watching them about a week before Thanksgiving. We tape them so we can speed through the commercials, and of course they all end in a kiss. Something I really look forward to is driving around and looking at the houses decorated with lights, reindeer, Santa and even the Grinch.

May the Holiday Season fill your home with joy, your heart with love and your life with laughter.

Princess Royal Linda Hatch

HAPPY HOLIDAYS

By Holly Austin, Pr. Tirzah

I must admit that I am an absolute sucker for the holidays. Beginning with the Thanksgiving celebrations, it is all about family, family, family. Coming from a large family and being very close to my siblings, I enjoy the camaraderie we have. I even enjoy the noise (for all those who know me, you know I don't care for noise).

My paternal grandmother's birthday was December 18. This was the one time every year that the extended family got together, the aunts and uncles, cousins, second cousins, and then some. We would use the VFW hall (second story of a very decrepit building which is long gone). My grandmother had to be carried up the very steep stairs. The different choices of food available was overwhelming. The men would play poker while the younger folk would play games and run, run, run. It was a very exhausting day to say the least.

The memory I will always have is when my grandmother blew out her candles and her false teeth went plop onto the cake. Of course she was mortified as some of us didn't even realize she had false teeth.

This is one of my cherished memories. Enjoying family, eating, playing. All of the most senior members of this event have left us for life eternal. Perhaps since I am now in the "senior" member generation, I can only hope to create for our family and friends some of these cherished events that live on forever.

From Supreme Princess Tirzah

Hello ladies. This summer I was asked by a Princess Tirzah, “Why do we put a veil over the open Bible.” I reached out to Past Supreme Queen Muriel Knapp, and she provided the following lovely story, which I want to share with all of you. Kathy

There is nothing written about why our Order has traditionally placed a veil over the Bible. Whenever we cannot find a written answer, we have simply said that the Founders wanted Daughters of the Nile to be different from other organizations. They did say that. Putting a veil over the Bible is certainly something different than we've seen in any other organization that I know of.

However, there is a lot of unwritten symbolism in our Ritual. This is an interpretive theory I have. Use it if makes any sense to you as it does to me:

The Bible is opened to the Beatitudes in Matthew, verses that describe virtues and the rewards for those who practice those virtues. That is similar to the virtues described by our Crescent ladies. If we live our Order's virtues, we find intangible rewards that bring joy to our lives. When I visited Tirzah Temple No. 3 in Butte, Montana (an old building that some people think is inhabited by ghosts) and I watched Princess Badoura weave with the Candidate through the Crescent, these thoughts came to me as an inspiration. The rather random weaving around the Crescent stations and back and forth to the Queen is kind of like a spider that you can watch weave an intricate and sticky web. (We do have a “sacred spider” referred to by the Queen when she instructs Princess Badoura to remove the cowl from the head of the candidate and replace it with the “sacred veil wrought by the hands of Nydia, the blind girl, from out the web of the sacred spider.”) If you drew out the walking around the room as a diagram, you would have the imaginary lines of the web intertwine to make a weaving of delicate lace. When the candidate walks and weaves this web, she is symbolically collecting the virtues revealed to her on that sticky web of an imaginary veil. We know Princess Tirzah says as part of her closing lecture, “Take with you, then, the memory of the grand principles inculcated [lessons taught and instilled in you] and the sweet helpful lessons taught herein and apply them in your daily life.” The Candidate has been instructed in and gathered our virtues symbolically on the veil on her head so that when she leaves the Temple, she virtually carries with her our Order's virtues and lives a better life practicing the virtues because of having been exposed to them.

This is not written anywhere. It is only my theory inspired in that old Masonic building in Butte, but our members liked the story whenever I told it. – Muriel V. Knapp, PSQ

Nydia Temple Sewing Committee

October 2023

Our Mannequin “kids” recently had their debut as patients in an all-Hospital Evacuation Drill. We are happy to report they were well received by the Staff. A challenging project, and we are so glad to have been asked to provide them.

This Fall, we made over 50 Trick-or-Treat bags for the Ambassadors to distribute. It was a fun project and we used up some of the Halloween fabric we already had. We also completed around 30 Hero Capes (thank you to Adele Goggins for the embroidered figures on the backs). These were also given out by the Ambassadors. As always, we continue making Transition, Family and In-patient quilts with matching pillowcases. Shorts are always in demand and we appreciate any help we can get to keep up with the demand. Cooling vests, fabric mazes, comfort pillows and Rehab wedges are provided as needed. The Committee appreciates the financial help the Temple provides to purchase the necessary supplies to keep up with requests.

Please remember that we use new, cotton/flannel fabrics for our patients. If you have more questions about what we are doing, or need instructions or ideas of how to help, please give me or PQ Judy Smith a call. We love to share what’s going on!

Membership Committee

So tell me the truth, do you watch Jeopardy and shout out questions to the answers. Okay I must admit, I don’t always answer in a form of a question. And of course, some of the categories I do better than others. But I enjoy the show and like to test my trivia knowledge.

I bet you are asking why I am talking about Jeopardy; well, our next Membership Social is going to be on February 17th and we are having a trivia contest. Our Pr. Badoura Teri Rollman is planning this event and I am sure she will have all the answers for us. And of course, there will be snacks and drinks and lots and lots of fun. More information will be sent out as we get closer to date.

So, think about inviting your friends, family and neighbors and let us show all of them what a great time Nydia ladies have.

The logo for HALOS Nite Club features a stylized orange and yellow circular graphic to the left of the text "HALOS Nite Club".

Halos, like Nite Lites, is an evening Nite club designed especially for the needs of our busy working members. We meet at the Tuality Lodge in Hillsboro the fourth Tuesday evening of each month. We have a light dinner at 6:30, start our meeting at 7, and are usually turning out the lights by 8:30. An early evening for a work night.

I know there are many members who are within a short drive who would enjoy having an evening of friendship while finding ways to support Shriners Children’s and Nydia Temple. If you live on the westside of Portland, I would encourage you to come for a visit. I promise we won’t bite or twist your arm to join the club if you stop by. Hope to see you soon.

FUNDRAISING UPDATES

By Holly Austin

Nydia Temple has completed yet another fundraiser. The Value Village drop off was Saturday, November 4. Sherry Hevland and I drove the U-Haul to the distribution center and we both surprised to be told to back it up to the loading dock and we were even more surprised to be told that we would unload it ourselves. Apparently we were spoiled last year when we sat back and simply watched. Yes, we threw bags onto the loading dock, over a ton of bags and over 850 pounds of books. Needless to say, neither Sherry nor I felt like an exercise class was in order that day. This was about half the amount we had last year. I will let everyone know what the final payment was.

Now we have completed the “indoor garage sale,” the Shriners’ Food Caravan dinner, and Value Village project.

I am currently hoping to find a more passive fundraiser; perhaps a on-line sales event. If anyone has ideas, I am happy to pursue the idea. You don’t need to be a member of the Fundraising Committee to lead an event. An example is that last year I organized a Pampered Chef on-line event to the tune of over $1000. We just need to earn a bit more to carry us through the year.

Thank you to all of you who participated in donations for the garage sale and for the Value Village project. My back and I thank all of you who participated in working the events as well. Your support is invaluable.

Did you know?

Did you know Shriners Children’s Portland has an extension clinic in Medford Oregon? This clinic is open every Saturday from 8:30 am to 5:00 pm. Dr. William Hohl, M.D., specially trained in pediatric orthopedics, provides high-level specialty care for patients in Southern Oregon that includes clubfoot, cerebral palsy, scoliosis, in toeing, muscular dystrophy and neurofibromatosis. The Medford clinic staff also provides fracture care such as re-alignment, casting, and post-fracture follow up.

Medford Clinic serves children in southern Oregon. Required surgeries are still performed at Shriners Children’s Portland. Pre-surgery visits are often arranged through telehealth. Post-surgery visits will continue at the Medford location.

Team Nile Wonder Women

On October 21 the Shriners Children's Walk for Love was held at the Portland Zoo. This was the 5th year, but only the third physical walk (due to COVID).

Although 7am is a little early even for the animals, there was a substantial crowd for the walk. "Walkers" could come in person or do a virtual walk. Nydia had a team of two in-person walkers at the zoo: PQ Sharon Kelley and Debbie Cook. (photo) Our team was spotted on the KOIN evening news that night!

Our team goal was $500. At last check we had pledges of $384. The Hospital's goal was $25,000. Their total that Saturday morning was over $35,000!

Thankyou's to those who supported the team.

NILE NOVEMBER AT NYDIA

In celebration of “Nile November” the ladies of Nydia Temple No. 4 decided to honor people and things that we are thankful for.

The first Annual Nile November event was held at our November Session. Chief Rob Wurpes (photo left) of the Wilsonville Police Department and seven of his officers joined us for lunch and an informative presentation. Also joining us were the members of the Al Kader Shriners First Responders Club.

Our ladies are so thankful for the efforts of our police officers and the first responders in our community. A Certificate of Appreciation was given to both groups by our Queen Donna Gray. Hug cards were given to all of the Wilsonville officers (Chief Rob took cards to the officers who weren't at lunch) and to the Shriners. All in all, it was a wonderful event and encouraged more community involvement for us.

SMILING is infectious, you catch it like the flu,
When someone SMILED at me today,
I started SMILING too.

I passed around the corner and someone saw my grin,
When he SMILED, I realized I'd passed it on to him.
I thought about that smile, then realized its worth,

A single SMILE just like mine could travel 'round the earth.
So if you feel a SMILE begin, don't leave it undetected,
